Your classes

Your classes will take place at one of the main university buildings – recently completely renovated and just 5 minutes' walk from your accommodation. The modern classrooms are all equipped with data projectors.

Your meal plan

A newly refurbished campus dining facility is just a short walk from the accommodation. Breakfast and dinner is provided every day with a choice of meals.

Your accommodation

You will live at Bomberg house – one of the residence facilities of South Bank University. The residence offers single en suite rooms with a private bathroom arranged in cluster flats, with a shared kitchen dining room for each flat. (Please note the kitchen is not available for cooking). There is also a social room and laundry facility on site.

The residence is just 3 minutes' walk from the nearest tube station (Borough) and is very close to London Bridge station. It is also within walking distance of the Tate Modern Gallery and the Globe Theatre.

Social activities

Our Taste of London programme includes a weekly travel card (zones 1 and 2) so you can explore London in your own time. Your programme also includes some optional organised visits. If you want to join other optional organised trips you can pay for these on a "pay-as-you-go" basis at the centre.

These include:

- River cruise
- West End show
- Iconic attractions: London Eye, Madame Tussauds, St Paul's cathedral
- Naval London: Maritime Museum, Greenwich market
- Art in London: Tate Modern, National Gallery, Victoria and Albert Museum, St Martins in the Fields
- Business in London: Tour of the City and Docklands

In the evenings the new "Venue bar" at the University is the location for some optional evening entertainment, including disco or karaoke.

Full day excursions (included in the price)

Typical destinations include:

- Windsor castle
- Hampton Court
- Brighton and Sealife Centre
- Canterbury and Cathedral
- Oxford and walking tour
- National Maritime Museum

Please note 16 and 17 year olds will need to have some level of supervision at all times.
