

MA in Professional Development for Language Education

Mode: Full or part-time through modular delivery. You can do the full MA (180 credits) or use fewer credits (60/120) to gain a postgraduate certificate or diploma qualification.

Length of Study: 1 – 7 years (as appropriate to your professional needs and personal circumstances)

Attendance: Taught, face-to-face components of the modules in Norwich are of two or three weeks' duration. All our elective modules except Developing Learner Autonomy are available as two-week face-to-face courses, and also through fully tutor-led online delivery. We are pleased to offer MAPDLE participants on any of our face-to-face modules the option of a further week for individual reading and study in our library at no extra charge. This is an excellent opportunity for our postgraduate students to get some background reading done while they are in Norwich, and also to map out and perhaps begin their module assignments. Please let us know when applying whether you would like to take advantage of this offer, so that we can reserve accommodation for you at our usual rates.

Start dates: Various (see dates of modules overleaf)

Place of Study: Norwich Institute for Language Education (NILE), Norwich, UK

How to Apply: Direct to NILE

Degree awarded by: University of Chichester

Entry Requirements: You should ideally have a degree (or equivalent) in a relevant discipline, language teaching experience, and also a level of proficiency in English sufficient for successful completion of a course of study at postgraduate level. Your application will also be considered if you have extensive language teaching experience but few or no formal qualifications. Exemption from the core module may be granted on the basis of accredited prior learning; details on request.
