

WINTER FAIR PROGRAMME

10:00-10:40 & 17:00-17:40

It's Quiz Time! by David Spencer

Quizzes are the perfect way to test your students' knowledge, but in a relaxed and entertaining way. This highly practical session will aim to show just how instructive, flexible and motivating quizzes can be, both in class and online.

10:45-11:20 & 17:45-18:20

Theatrical Folklore in ESL by Sirhajwan Idek & Nurazilah Othman

This session will delve into three types of theatrical performances that can be incorporated into English language lessons: reader's theatre, puppetry and animated tales. The audience will be able to watch some snippets of students' performance videos.

11:25-11:55 & 18:25-18:55

Creating emotional awareness through Process Drama in the ELT classroom by Alicja Gałazka

In the talk you can learn what process drama is and how it can be used successfully in the ELT classroom for stimulating language and emotional skills in the safe fictional context.

12:00-12:30 & 19:00-19:30

Finding Your Feet: Gaining Practical Confidence to Push the Desks Back by Ben Crystal

An inspiring, practical masterclass with actor, author, and creative producer, Ben Crystal. In the face of austerity, creative spaces are among the first to be lost, and nurturing artistic expression is even more difficult when obscured by classroom architecture. "Pushing the desks back" clears the way to activate the dramatic instrument - the body and voice become free to move and play.
